Christmas Eve

Another fun get together on Christmas Eve, with 'Naughty Santa' making an appearance

New Year's Eve

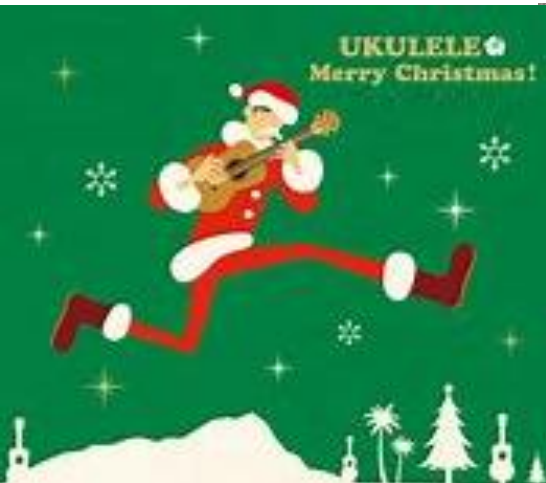

Unfortunately, Covid reared its ugly head again in the resort. Sadly, 25 residents were unable to come, although around 50 residents were still able to make it.

The attending residents had a wonderful evening. Everyone enjoyed the great entertainment provided by Totally Charlie.

Christmas Ukulele Concert

A great big thank you to our whole Ukelele group who put on a wonderful Christmas concert for their fellow residents.

Everyone was appreciative of the entertainment provided

Arty Gems

What a wonderful gift was given to each household by the Art Gems group.

We appreciated the lovely bookmarks and the thought that went into them.

Thank you to the HOC for inviting Councillor Jason O'Pray to come and speak to us about issues that are relevant to us in our community.

So many were impressed by his openness and candour in expressing his opinions about sensible development and sustainability for our region. Jason will be standing for Mayor in the next council election.

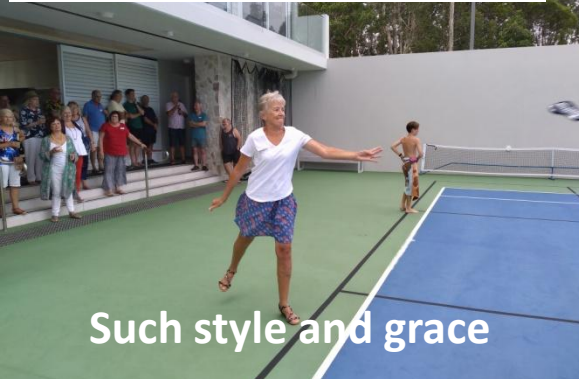

It's Back!
Our monthly Sausage Sizzle will recommence on Sunday 25th February.

Thank you to our new resident who has keenly taken over the organisation of the monthly Sausage Sizzle, we will be able to hold it on the last Sunday of each month.

So many of us got together for a time of celebration and fun. Thong throwing, Aussie Trivia, Aussie sing-a-long and prizes, it doesn't get much better than that.

Such style and grace

Our fantastic Ukulele band

Our thong throwing champions
